Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find my list of bids for the Barton Sale of the 19th inst. Trusting the majority of them will be successful I remain

Yours very truly
W. B. H.

P.S. As to the "rubbing" of the Bechtler coins.
You can readily see that I can get descriptions of these from old catalogues, but that rubbing are the "decisive" since they are self descriptive.
I want to see all the dies types I make a list of some. Some of the Phila. collectors of "Bechtler's" may be willing to spare me some that I haven't (?) as yet secured. Please note that I desire the Minor, Barnwell & Clewney Catalogues with plates. W.B.H.

Messrs. S. N. & N. Chapman,

1348 PINE STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

Gentlemen:-

S. H. & H. Chapman
1348, Pine Street
Philadelphia, Pa.

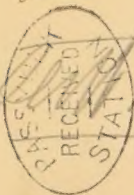

Dear Sir:-

Careful search for the "pieces" belonging to the Bushnell Sale has resulted as before stated in not finding them (or it). Please therefore complete your part of the bargain, by sending me the pages necessary to make my Catalogue complete, since I desire to print it at once. The "European Crown" Sale does not interest me enough to send in any bids. When can I expect the "rubbing" of the "Bechtlers"? I want all the dies & types of the 1. 2½. & 5. & pieces.

Very truly Yours
Wm. C. Hildner

Gentlemen:-

Yours of 21st is at hand (here).
The $5. Bechtler of 128 g. 22 carats does not interest me thirty dollars worth. I want you to put it down, as an experience of twenty years, that I have seen more of this particular Bechtler than any other $5.- die & I cannot see the reason for stating it to be rare. Sic!

An Asheville, ^{N.C.} man (Lazinsky) has two of them ^{now!!!} & I known of seven more. Do you believe any good reason could be given for stating them to be rare?
(I should like to know the reason?)

What can I get a $1.⁰⁰ U.S. Gold of 1863 or 1864 ^{for}?

I call you urgent attention to your letter to me of April 21st last & respectfully request of you to make & mail to me those promised "mottos". Also include "mottos" of the Templeton Keir $10.- $5.- & $2 1/2 piece.
& greatly oblige Yours truly
Wm. C. Hiden
